COMPANY LIMITED, AND OTHERS, RELATING TO CERTAIN SWAP

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES M. PECK
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Lehman Brothers Special Financing Inc. ("LBSF") and its affiliated debtors in the above-referenced chapter 11 cases, including Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI"), as debtors and debtors in possession (together, the "Debtors" and, collectively with their non-debtor affiliates, "Lehman"), file this Motion and respectfully represent:

Background

1. Commencing on September 15, 2008 and periodically thereafter (as applicable, the “Commencement Date”), LBHI and certain of its subsidiaries commenced with this Court voluntary cases under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Debtors’ chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On September 17, 2008, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed the statutory committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Creditors’ Committee”).

3. On September 19, 2008, a proceeding was commenced under the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 with respect to Lehman Brothers Inc. (“LBI”). A trustee appointed under SIPA is administering LBI’s estate.

4. On January 19, 2009, the U.S. Trustee appointed Anton R. Valukas as examiner in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases and by order, dated January 20, 2009 [Docket No. 2583] the Court approved the U.S. Trustee’s appointment of the Examiner. On March 11, 2010, the Examiner filed its report with the Court [Docket No. 7531].

5. On March 15, 2010, the Debtors filed their joint chapter 11 plan pursuant to section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 7572]. On April 14, 2010, the Debtors filed their revised joint chapter 11 plan [Docket No. 8330] and disclosure statement for their revised joint chapter 11 plan pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 8332].

Jurisdiction

6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to consider and determine this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

Lehman's Business

7. Prior to the events leading up to these chapter 11 cases, Lehman was the fourth largest investment bank in the United States. For more than 150 years, Lehman had been a leader in the global financial markets by serving the financial needs of corporations, governmental units, institutional clients and individuals worldwide.

8. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structures, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is contained in the Affidavit of Ian T. Lowitt Pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York in Support of First-Day Motions and Applications, filed on September 15, 2008 [Docket No. 2].

Relief Requested

9. By this Motion, the Debtors seek approval, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, of a settlement that provides for resolution of all disputes among LBSF, LBHI, Saphir Finance Public Limited Company ("Saphir"), BNY Corporate Trustee Services Limited ("BNY"), The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch, The Bank of New York Mellon (Ireland) Limited, Perpetual Trustee Company Limited ("Perpetual"), and LBHI Estates Limited (the "Parties"), in connection with two particular series of debt securities issued out of the Dante Program (defined below) and litigation currently pending in this Court as well as the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom (the "UK Supreme Court"). The proposed settlement is reflected in two agreements: (i) the Termination and Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is annexed hereto as "Exhibit A," and (ii) the Settlement Payment Deed (together with the Termination and Settlement Agreement, the “Settlement”), a redacted copy of which is annexed hereto as “Exhibit B.”¹ The Debtors have determined, in the exercise of their sound business judgment, that the Settlement is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors.

The Dante Program

10. BNY, as Trustee, entered into a Principal Trust Deed dated October 10, 2002 as amended and restated from time to time, with Dante Finance Public Limited Company (“Dante”) pursuant to which a multi-issuer secured obligation program (the “Dante Program”) was established. Under the Dante Program, Saphir, a special purpose entity incorporated in Ireland, issued various series of credit-linked synthetic portfolio notes, including (i) the Series 2004-11 AUD 75,000,000 Synthetic Portfolio Notes Due 2011, and (ii) Series 2006-5 AUD 50,000,000 Synthetic Portfolio Notes due 2011 and Extendable Up to 2016 (collectively, the “Notes”) (collectively, the agreements underlying the Saphir 2004-11 and 2006-5 transactions are referred to as the “Transaction Documents”). The Notes were secured by various assets and certain secured obligations. The performance of the Notes is linked to credit-default swap transactions between LBSF and Saphir that were executed in connection with the issuance of the Notes (collectively, the “Transactions”)

11. Under the Transactions, the bankruptcy filing of any party constitutes an “Event of Default.” Ordinarily, absent an Event of Default by LBSF, the Transaction Documents provide that LBSF received payments before Noteholders, i.e., “Swap Counterparty Priority” applies. Upon an Event of Default by LBSF under the Transactions, however, the Transaction Documents provide that LBSF’s payment priority would change such that LBSF would receive payments, if any, after payments are made to Perpetual, the sole Noteholder, i.e., a change from “Swap Counterparty Priority” to “Noteholder Priority.” In addition, the Transaction Documents further modify LBSF’s payment priority by not subtracting from the Noteholder’s payment the unwind costs incurred by LBSF.

The Dispute

12. Following the Commencement Date, the Transactions were terminated and Perpetual, the 100% owner of the Notes, sought to redeem the Notes and liquidate the collateral that secures them. Disputes arose between LBSF and Perpetual regarding, inter alia, the priority of payments that should be applied by BNY under the Transaction Documents when liquidating the collateral and distributing the proceeds between Perpetual and LBSF.

The English Proceedings

13. On May 13, 2009, Perpetual filed a claim in the High Court of Justice Chancery Division, Royal Courts of Justice, in London (the “English Proceedings”), seeking an order requiring BNY to pay it in accordance with Noteholder Priority. LBSF chose to join the English Proceedings to ensure its rights were protected, although it preferred to litigate these issues in the Bankruptcy Court. The main issue before the High Court was whether the English common law “anti-deprivation principle” would invalidate the shift to Noteholder Priority after the bankruptcy filing. No issues of U.S. law were considered by the High Court.

14. Following the hearing, the High Court ruled in favor of Perpetual. LBSF filed a notice of appeal of the High Court’s judgment on August 17, 2009. On November 6, 2009, the English Court of Appeal issued a judgment affirming the previous judgment of the High Court. On March 31, 2010, the UK Supreme Court agreed to hear LBSF’s appeal against the Court of Appeal’s judgment (the “UK Appeal”). A hearing is scheduled for March 2011.

The Adversary Proceeding

15. On May 20, 2009, LBSF filed a complaint in this Court naming BNY as defendant, Adv. No. 09-01242 (JMP) (the “Adversary Proceeding”), seeking a declaratory judgment that (i) provisions in the Transaction Documents purporting to modify LBSF’s right to receive priority of payments solely because of its chapter 11 filing are unenforceable “ipso facto” clauses, and that, as a result, LBSF is entitled to payment under “Swap Counterparty Priority,” and (ii) any attempt to enforce the ipso facto clauses would violate the automatic stay.

16. On June 10, 2009, LBSF filed its motion for summary judgment. On June 22, 2009, BNY filed a motion to dismiss the Adversary Proceeding. LBSF opposed the motion to dismiss. On August 11, 2009, the Court denied the motion to dismiss, and thereafter, pursuant to a briefing schedule ordered by the Court, BNY filed a cross motion for summary judgment. On January 25, 2010, this Court granted LBSF’s motion for summary judgment in its Memorandum Decision. Lehman Bros. Special Fin. Inc. v. BNY Corporate Tr. Servs. Ltd. (In re Lehman Bros. Holdings Inc.), 422 B.R. 407 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010). In the Memorandum Decision, this Court held that the ipso facto prohibitions of §§ 365(e)(1) and 541(c)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code invalidated the shift to Noteholder Priority, which this court found did not occur prior to LBSF’s bankruptcy filing, and held in the alternative that the payment priority shift would constitute an invalid ipso facto clause even if it was automatically triggered upon LBHI’s earlier bankruptcy filing. Id. 418-19.

17. On July 19, 2010, this Court entered an interlocutory order memorializing its Memorandum Decision in favor of LBSF (the “Summary Judgment Order”). On September 20, 2010, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “SDNY District Court”) granted BNY’s motion for leave to appeal the Summary Judgment Order (the “US Appeal”).

18. From time to time over the course of the 18 months following the commencement of the Adversary Proceeding, LBSF and Perpetual have engaged in settlement discussions. When LBSF and Perpetual reached an agreement in principle, LBSF (jointly with the Creditors' Committee) requested that the SDNY District Court stay the US Appeal. On November 19, 2010, Judge Colleen McMahon issued a 90 day stay of the US Appeal. By letter dated November 24, 2010, LBSF has requested that the SDNY District Court remand the US Appeal to this Court so that this Court can consider approval of the Settlement.²

The Settlement

19. The Parties have entered into the Termination and Settlement Agreement and LBSF, Perpetual, and the Settlement Payment Agent have entered into the Settlement Payment Deed, both of which are subject to approval by this Court.

20. The salient terms of the Termination and Settlement Agreement are as follows:³

- the Notes will be redeemed;
- all claims under all of the Transaction Documents (insofar as they relate to the Notes and the Swap Transactions) will be terminated, and the Parties will exchange a mutual release of all claims related to the Transactions; provided, however, that nothing in the Termination and Settlement Agreement shall alter, impair, improve or affect the rights of any holders of notes in the Dante Program (other than the Notes) and such rights (if any) of all such holders of notes (and BNY, to the extent it acts as trustee for the holders of such notes) are reserved in full.

² If the remand of the US Appeal is delayed or denied, the parties to the Settlement will confer as to how best to proceed.

³ To the extent that there is any inconsistency between the following summaries and the terms of the Termination and Settlement Agreement and the Settlement Payment Deed, the Termination and Settlement Agreement and the Settlement Payment Deed, as applicable, shall control.

- LBHI, as the Credit Support Provider,⁴ will be relieved of any liability relating to the Transaction Documents;
- the collateral securing the Notes and the Transactions will be sold;
- LBHI Estates Ltd., a non-debtor affiliate of LBSF, will act as the Disposal Agent to sell the collateral;
- following payment of prior ranking costs and expenses, Saphir will pay all moneys payable to LBSF and Perpetual to a Settlement Payment Agent, who will distribute the funds in accordance with the Settlement Payment Deed, to Perpetual and LBSF; and
- following the Effective Date, but prior to receipt of the settlement payment by LBSF, the Adversary Proceeding and the US Appeal will be dismissed, and subsequently, the English Proceedings and the UK Appeal will be dismissed.

21. The Termination and Settlement Agreement is conditioned upon

- a stay of the US Appeal (which, as stated above, was granted by the SDNY District Court);
- Perpetual obtaining advice from the Supreme Court of New South Wales, Australia, pursuant to the Trustee Act 1925 (NSW), that Perpetual's entry into and performance of its obligations under the Settlement are a proper exercise of its powers and duties, as trustee for noteholders; and
- the Debtors' obtaining approval of the Settlement from this Court pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

22. The principal terms of the Settlement Payment Deed are as follows:

- within one business day of receipt of the payment from Saphir pursuant to the Termination and Settlement Agreement, the Settlement Payment Agent will make a payment to LBSF, and hold the remainder of the moneys until a later date agreed to by the parties;
- on the agreed payment date, the Settlement Payment Agent will pay a final sum to Perpetual;

⁴ Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Termination and Settlement Agreement and the Settlement Payment Deed.

- both Perpetual and LBSF agree to indemnify the Settlement Payment Agent against any liabilities arising from (i) the performance of its obligations under the Settlement Payment Deed, (ii) the Settlement Payment Agent entering into or participating in the Settlement Payment Deed, or (iii) any court proceedings, dispute or arbitration relating to the Settlement Payment Deed, other than liability due to breach of the Settlement Payment Deed, or fraud, negligence, or misconduct;
- the Settlement Payment Deed is subject to the laws of New South Wales, and each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of New South Wales shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any disputes or proceedings relating to the Settlement Payment Deed; and
- each party will bear its own costs and expenses relating to the Settlement Payment Deed. LBSF will pay Perpetual's costs (in the sum of £280,320) relating to a part of the English Proceedings.

The Controlling Legal Standard

23. Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) provides that, “[o]n motion by the [debtor-in-possession] and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019(a). This rule empowers bankruptcy courts to approve compromises “if they are in the best interest of the estate.” Vaughn v. Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc. (In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc.), 134 B.R. 499, 505 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991); see also Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424 (1968); Fisher v. Pereira (In re 47-49 Charles St., Inc.), 209 B.R. 618, 620 (S.D.N.Y. 1997); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 156 B.R. 414, 426 (S.D.N.Y. 1993), aff’d, 17 F.3d 600 (2d Cir. 1994). Indeed, courts have long considered compromises to be “a normal part of the process of reorganization.” TMT Trailer Ferry, 390 U.S. at 424 (quoting Case v. Los Angeles Lumber Prods. Co., 308 U.S. 106, 130 (1939)).

24. Bankruptcy courts have applied the following factors in determining whether a settlement should be approved: (i) the probability of success in litigation, with due consideration for the uncertainty in fact and law; (ii) the complexity and likely duration of the litigation and any attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay; (iii) the proportion of creditors who do not object to, or who affirmatively support, the proposed settlement; and (iv) the extent to which the settlement is truly the product of arm's-length bargaining and not the product of fraud or collusion. See Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc., 390 U.S. at 424; In re Ashford Hotels, Ltd., 226 B.R. 797, 804 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998); In re Best Prods. Co., 168 B.R. at 50.

25. The decision to approve a particular compromise lies within the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court. Nellis v. Shugrue, 165 B.R. 115, 123 (S.D.N.Y. 1994). The settlement need not result in the best possible outcome for the debtor, but must not fall beneath the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.” In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, 134 B.R. at 505; see also Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983); In re Spielfogel, 211 B.R. 133, 144 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1997). Additionally, a court may exercise its discretion “in light of the general public policy favoring settlements.” In re Hibbard Brown & Co., Inc., 217 B.R. 41, 46 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998). However, the analysis must focus on the question of whether a particular compromise is “fair and equitable, and in the best interest of the estate.” In re Best Prods. Co., 165 B.R. 35, 50 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1994) (internal citations omitted).

26. While a court must “evaluate ... all ... factors relevant to a fair and full assessment of the wisdom of the proposed compromise,” Anderson, 390 U.S. at 424-25, a court need not conduct a “mini-trial” of the merits of the claims being settled, W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d at 608, or conduct a full independent investigation. Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, 134 B.R. at 496. “[T]he bankruptcy judge does not have to decide the numerous questions of law and fact.... The court need only canvass the settlement to determine whether it is within the accepted range of reasonableness.” Nellis, 165 B.R. at 123 (internal citations omitted).

27. The court may give weight to the “informed judgments of the ... debtor-in-possession and their counsel that a compromise is fair and equitable, and consider the competency and experience of counsel who support the compromise.” Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, 134 B.R. at 505 (internal citations omitted); see also In re Purofied Down Prods. Corp., 150 B.R. 519, 522 (S.D.N.Y. 1993); accord In re Ashford Hotels Ltd., 226 B.R. 797, 802 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (“Significantly, that test does not contemplate that I substitute my judgment for the Trustee’s, but only that I test his choice for reasonableness.... If the Trustee chooses one of two reasonable choices, I must approve that choice, even if, all things being equal, I would have selected the other.”).

28. Significantly, there is no requirement that “the value of the compromise ... be dollar-for-dollar the equivalent of the claim.” Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 156 B.R. at 427. Instead, “there is no reason, at least in theory, why a satisfactory settlement could not amount to a hundredth or even a thousandth part of a single percent of the potential recovery.” Id. at 427-28 (quoting City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448 (2d Cir. 1974).

The Settlement Meets the Legal Standard Established Under Rule 9019 and Is in the Bests Interests of the Debtors’ Estates

29. The Settlement will clearly benefit the Debtors and their creditors. First, the Settlement will result in a substantial payment to LBSF’s estate. LBSF has determined, in the exercise of its business judgment, that such payment will adequately compensate the estate for the value of the Transactions. Second, the Settlement will avoid future disputes and litigation concerning the Transactions because the parties have agreed to release one another from claims thereunder.

30. The Settlement also enables the Debtors to avoid the risks and costs of litigation, including the risks of the US Appeal. Although the Debtors believe that the Court's Summary Judgment Order is grounded in sound bankruptcy law and should be affirmed, the results of litigation are never certain and further litigation (including the potential for further appeals) necessarily will be time consuming and costly to the Debtors' estates. Additionally, if BNY were to be successful in the US Appeal (in whole or in part), there could be a negative impact on the Debtors' efforts to recover value from other similarly-situated counterparties. Finally, the Settlement avoids the need to reconcile the potentially inconsistent decisions of the courts in the United States and the United Kingdom.

31. Thus, the Settlement will allow LBSF to capture the value of the Transactions for its estate, while avoiding the costs associated with continuation of the pending litigation. The Debtors therefore submit that the Settlement falls well above the lowest point in the range of reasonableness. For these reasons, the Court should approve the Settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

32. The Creditors' Committee has been involved in the discussion and negotiation of the Settlement, and has been fully informed of and consented to the terms of the Termination and Settlement Agreement and the Settlement Payment Deed.

Notice

33. No trustee has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors have served notice of this Motion on (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the attorneys for the Creditors' Committee; (iii) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; and (vi) all other parties entitled to notice in accordance with the procedures set forth in the second amended order entered on June 17, 2010 governing case management and administrative procedures for these cases [Docket No. 9635]. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice need be provided.

34. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that the Court grant the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as it deems just and proper.

11.2 By executing this Deed and pursuant to the Extraordinary Resolution, the Noteholder, in accordance with the Trust Deeds and other transaction documents in respect of the Notes hereby directs and instructs the Trustee and the Issuer to execute this Deed and to be subject to the rights and obligations contained herein that are applicable to them.

The liability of the Noteholder arising under or in connection with this Deed is limited to, and can be enforced against it only to, the extent to which it can be satisfied out of the property and assets held by the Noteholder for the time being and from time to time in its capacity as trustee for the Mahogany I Notes and for the Mahogany II Notes from which the Noteholder is indemnified for the liability. This limitation of liability applies despite any other provision of this Deed and extends to all liabilities and obligations of the Noteholder in any way connected with any representation, warranty, conduct, omission, indemnity, agreement or transaction made in or related to this Deed.
